

LumensCMS Software Release Note

| Release Date | Version  | Description                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | Note                                                |
|--------------|----------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------|
| 2022/06/24   | V1.11.36 | Improvement1. Camera search default setting: Stop Search.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |                                                     |
| 2022/01/12   | V1.11.35 | New Features1. Added camera parameter configuration import/export function.2. Remove the serial number information field.Improvement1. VISCA Command bugs correction.2. Other bugs fixed.                                                                                                                 | Compatible with VC-TR1firmware v1.1.30 or above |
| 2021/05/25   | V1.11.32 | New Features1. Add Face height Calibration function.Improvement1. Improved calibration position of tracing camera and panoramic camera.2. Fixed bug: calibration position data erase after factory reset.3. Fixed bug: USB output image flash.4. Add reminder message to change the default password. | Compatible with VC-TR1firmware v1.1.27 or above |

|            |          |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |                                                  |
|------------|----------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------|
| 2021/03/22 | V1.11.30 | New Features1. Add Auto-framing function, can switch to Auto-framing mode or Auto-tracking mode.Improvement1. Fixed RS232 command bugs:1.1 Tracking on1.2 Tracking off1.3 Reboot2. On the tracking mode, Tracking off and Power on/off command can be executed. | Compatible with VC-TR1 firmware v1.1.19 or above |
| 2021/01/04 | V1.11.26 | New Features1. Support Multi-People Detection                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | Compatible with VC-TR1 firmware v1.1.13 or above |
| 2020/11/02 | V1.11.25 | First version.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                  |